

Final Proposal

www.kaamchha.org

Kaamchha is a project and we believe that information is key to making good decisions. We also believe that people with good work and good morals need to be appreciated and recognized. Our dynamic rating system of the service provider shall help them to be recognized and appreciated for their work, which we believe shall work as a motivational element for the improvement of their skills.

Kaamchha shall also provide periodical skill up gradation trainings to service providers to ensure that they are updated to cope with current advancements in technologies and to adapt within the area of their work. We believe that our futuristic training models shall help to raise the standard and quality of work in Nepal. Kaamchha, shall work to provide a holistic approach to labor market management with various event and activities enlisted below:

- Free trainings / workforce upliftment programs
